

Driver Charged In US - 90 Crash Fatal to Two

The driver of an automobile which struck another car Sunday on US-90 at the Kila Rd. intersection, killing an elderly couple, has been charged with manslaughter.

Willie Necaise, 49, of Bayou La Batre, Ala., was booked at Hancock County Jail, Gulfport, Tuesday after being released from Biloxi Hospital where he had been under treatment for injuries suffered in the accident.

The arrest was made by Jackson Road Patrolman R. L. McArthur on a warrant issued by U. S. District Judge Rhodes at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

The dead, Mr. and Mrs. Presley M. Blount, 76 and 68, respectively, were returning home from a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Blount, of Gulfport. Mrs. Blount is the sister of Amelia (Mizzi) Maister of Bay St. Louis.

The Blounts were in an automobile driven by another son, Thomas C. Blount, 40, of Coushatta. The driver of the other car was Willie Necaise, 49, of Bay La Batre, Ala. A passenger in his car was Edward Necaise, 56, of Biloxi.

Mississippi State Highway

Safety Patrolman William Kenny reported that the elder Blounts were hurled from the automobile when it spun to the side of the road after being struck on the right side. Necaise reportedly had run a stop sign.

Dr. Wesley McFarland pronounced the two dead and a coroner's jury declared the accident was the cause of death.

Thomas C. Blount was taken by a Fabey-Whitfield ambulance to Hancock County Hospital where he was treated for general lacerations and contusions and released.

Willie and Edward Necaise were unconscious when hospitalized at Mobile, Ala., and Biloxi, respectively. They suffered superficial cuts and contusions generally about the body.

Edward Necaise remains in the hospital where his condition is listed as fair.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Blount were taken to the Spears funeral home at Coushatta. Joint services were at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church there. Officiating were the Rev. Douglas Burnley of Harmon Baptist Church and the Rev. Jack Shaw of First Baptist Church. They were members of Harmon Baptist Church. Burial was in Springville Cemetery at Coushatta.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Betty Jenkins of Fort Leno, N. M., and Mrs. Lucille Shores of Lenora City, Tenn., and four sons, Thomas C. and James O. Blount, Presley M. Blount Jr. of Harmon, La., and Dr. David Blount of San Diego, Calif.

REIGNING BEAUTIES—Mary Louise Peranich (bottom), queen of St. Stanislaus homecoming this weekend, stands on the steps of St. Joseph Academy with Patty Babin, maid of honor, and Martha Cair, Gwen Heitzman and Rosy Cowand, (bottom to top), maids. The festivities will begin with a pep rally and bonfire Friday night. Brother Athanasius will be moderator of an alumni meeting and officers election at 11 a.m. Sunday. Dinner will be served to students and guests at noon. The queen and her court will be featured in the pre-game parade at 1:30 p.m. and the gridiron match with East Jefferson High School, New Orleans, will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

Architect To Be Named For Schools

Fred L. Wagner and James Oubre, New Orleans architects of the firm of Oubre and Wagner, spoke to a special meeting Sept. 25, of the board of trustees of Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District.

The meeting included further consideration of selection of an architect to design the proposed school additions which board members and city officials agreed were necessary at another special meeting Sept. 18.

Charles L. Proffer, Gulfport architect who is designer of the Kila Consolidated School now under construction, was present at the Sept. 18 meeting.

At the earlier meeting Superintendent Joe D. McCullough outlined a need for: A 16-room elementary school for white students on the 29-acre Dunbar Ave. property owned by the school system.

A three-room addition to the Valena C. Jones school for colored students.

A possible commercial shop addition to Bay High School.

Mr. Wagner reminded board members that he had had experience with construction in the Bay St. Louis area when he and Mr. Oubre designed the J. R. Scharff-owned Jitney Jungle store and a clinic for Dr. Wesley McFarland.

"I have a great interest in your school program," he added, "since my family and I hope to live here permanently within the next two years."

He said he and his family already are summer residents of Bay St. Louis.

"Mr. Oubre and I built two $5 million high schools at New Orleans while we are associated with the firm of Curtis and Davis there. Although we have been involved primarily with high school construction, we believe that the basic problems of school construction are the same."

Mr. Wagner stressed that he and Mr. Oubre would use an organized, businesslike approach to the problem of construction. Board members saw a copy of a complete report prepared for a New Orleans school board.

Finally, Mr. Wagner stressed that he and Mr. Oubre would feel responsible for seeing that the public was fully informed of the proposed design. An architectural model of the proposed building and explanatory booklets would be made available to the voters before the school bond issue was brought to the polls, he said.

Wayne Alliston, president of the board, pointed out that according to state law, no architect may be paid for a school design until the school bond issue has been approved by voters. He added that the architect nevertheless must present a complete set of plans for the building, before the bond is presented, for approval by the state Educational Finance Commission and the State Department of Education.

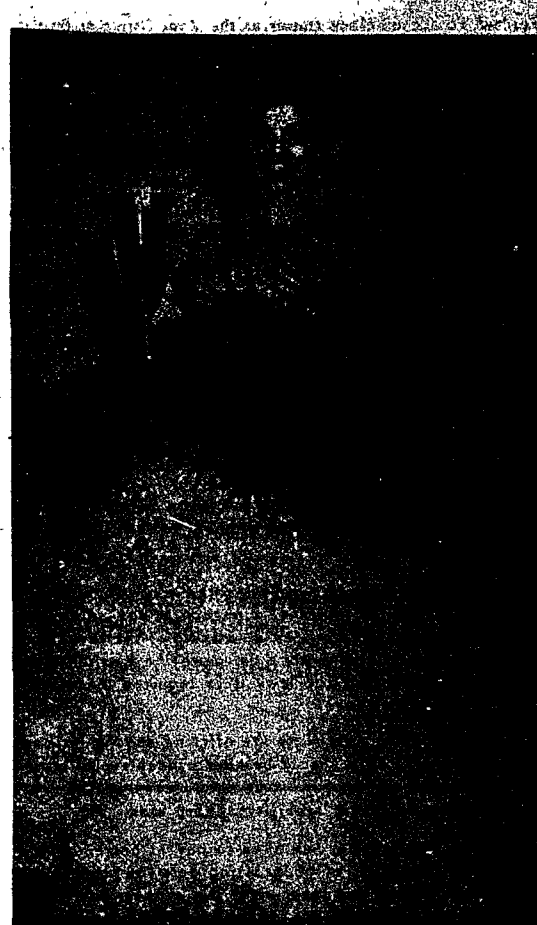

Therefore, an architect must design the building before he is assured of a commission.

Mr. Wagner affirmed Mr. Alliston's statement and added that he and Mr. Oubre would want, if they were asked to prepare a building plan, a letter from the board saying that they would be chosen to construct the building if the bond issue was passed and if their price estimate was satisfactory.

Mr. Alliston assured him that this would be done for which ever architect was chosen to prepare the plans.

Mr. McCullough said that of the $200,000 to $240,000 estimated cost of the building proposal, he hoped to obtain from $40,000 to $44,000 from state aid funds. He explained that of

MISS MYRNA QUARTERMAN
Southeast District Queen of Forest

Myrna Quarterman Chosen Forestry Queen of District

Hancock County's Myrna Quarterman, 16-year-old Bay High School junior, was crowned Southeast District Queen of the Forest Tuesday night at Laurel.

Miss Quarterman was chosen Sept. 22 at Kila Youth Center to represent the county in the 15-county district contest. She will represent the southeast district in the Queen of the Forest contest and parade Oct. 10 at Jackson.

The blonde, blue-eyed 5 foot 1 inch daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Quarterman of 128 State St., broke into smiling tears when she was crowned by State Tax Collector William Winter, featured speaker of the evening.

Mr. Winter credited a "far sighted leadership" in forest management with bringing a resurgence of the timber wealth Mississippi had before the wildcat cutting of the early 1900s.

Listeners were urged to "reeducate yourselves" to the preservation of the timber wealth of the state by helping to influence others to remove the forest fire threat in the state.

State Rep. John Neill, Jones County, was master of ceremonies.

Heavy rains forced the contest, originally scheduled to be held at the South Mississippi fair now under way at Laurel, indoors to the Pinchurst Hotel.

Heart Attack Kills New Orleans Man

Melvin George Prendergast, 54, of 3214 Deers St., New Orleans, died early Sunday afternoon while cutting grass at the Bayou La Batre summer camp near the Admiral Island estate, outside of the city. Corner's verdict was that death was caused by a heart attack.

The body was taken to the Jacob Schoen and Sons, Inc. funeral home at New Orleans where services were at 4 p.m. Tuesday. Religious services were in St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church there and burial was in Hope Mausoleum, New Orleans.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Louise Brown Prendergast; his mother, Mrs. Rosie Holts, and a brother, Henry Prendergast. His father, John Prendergast, has died.

Rites Are Held For Sister Of City Mayor

Services for Mrs. Leo R. (Bessie Scalfie) Murtagh, 56, Bay St. Louis native who died Friday in her home at Port Allen La., were Saturday morning in Wilbert's funeral home and in the Catholic Church at Port Allen and at 1:15 p.m. Sunday in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church here. A requiem mass was at Port Allen. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery here.

Bearers here were Edward Murtagh, Charles Carter Jr., Dan Kimball, Sam D'Agostino, Kemmer Day and Edwin Little.

Born Sept. 27, 1901, at Bay St. Louis, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Scalfie. She was married Feb. 2, 1924, to Mr. Murtagh, another Bay St. Louis native. They moved 18 years ago to Port Allen. Mr. Murtagh died Sept. 25, 1949.

Her parents also have died. Survivors include two sons, Robert A. and James R., and a daughter, Mrs. W. T. (Bessie Clair) Thibodeaux; all of Port Allen; a brother, Mayor John A. Scalfie of Bay St. Louis; six sisters, Miss Annelle Scalfie of Shreveport, La.; Mrs. V. J. Franchelwood of Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Mary E. Scalfie of Port Allen; Mrs. Charles E. Carter and Mrs. Curtis F. Madenier, both of Bay St. Louis; and four grandchildren.

Yacht Club Program

An evening of games and entertainment has been planned for members of the Bay View Yacht Club Friday beginning at 8 p.m. and 10 p.m. The program is the first of a series which will be continued throughout the winter months.

Court Clerk's Office To Be Divided

Hancock County Board of Supervisors Friday approved the suggestion of Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell that his office be divided into that of Circuit Court Clerk and Chancery Court Clerk. Candidates for both offices will be on the ballot during the 1959 Democratic primary election.

"This division existed until several years ago when the offices were combined," Mr. Mitchell said. "However, since 1948 Hancock County's classification in terms of land value assessments has risen from that of a class 7 to a class 4 county. The present assessed value of $11 million is nearly double that of 10 years ago."

Because of his close connection with county financing problems, Mr. Mitchell said that he would be a candidate for the office of chancery clerk next year, adding that the announcement was made today in order that candidates for either of the new offices might have time to prepare for the election.

"Since this office is dependent upon collected fees for salaries and maintenance," the division will not involve added expense to the county, Mr. Mitchell stressed.

"The unusual growth of this county in the last 10 years has made the present combination of the two clerks' offices under one title too much of a burden for one person to handle efficiently. If continued so the division will make it possible for us to promote closer contact with the affairs of the people and to expedite all matters without any great delay," Mr. Mitchell added.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner has said that he will be a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk in the 1959 democratic primary election. The sheriff will complete a four-year term as sheriff in 1960. He served as city commissioner for seven years before taking office as sheriff.

In other business the board discussed the possibility of building a $40,000 to $50,000 county health center, using $15,000 from county funds with the remainder to be drawn from state and federal funds under the Hill-Burton act.

The supervisors noted that the land rolls for the fiscal year 1958 had been approved by the state tax commission.

Members approved the purchase of a truck for the county to replace the road building distributor truck which was burned recently.

Capt. Owen Price Dies Aboard Ship

Capt. Owen McIntyre Price, 56, died aboard the SS Alcoa Polaris at sea en route to San Juan, Puerto Rico, Sept. 20. He was a resident of Waveland and New Orleans.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Lunn Price; two brothers, Stanley and Thomas Price, of Baltimore, Md.; and a sister, Miss Kathleen Price of Baltimore.

Services were held from the P. J. McMahon Funeral Home at New Orleans Sept. 28 with burial in Lake Lawn Cemetery.

Miss America Will Arrive In City Tuesday Afternoon

Miss Mary Ann Mobley, Mississippi's first Miss America, will arrive at Bay St. Louis at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday. Mayor John A. Scalfie will greet her on the steps of the Hancock County Courthouse.

St. Stanislaus Has 31-6 Grid Triumph

St. Stanislaus Rockchaws allowed only one enemy touchdown in the 31-6 game Friday night with the Rebels of Nichols High School, New Orleans.

The first touchdown was set up when J. E. Lotacano raced 35 yards to the Nichols five-yard line. On the next play John Kimble scored.

In the last seven seconds of the second quarter the Rockchaws drove to the Rebels six-yard line where Cecil Glarioso punted over for the touchdown. John Kimble picked up the third tally for the Rocks on the 45-yard line in the last quarter. Herman Jacobi faded back and tossed a 35-yard aerial to J. E. Lotacano, who strolled over for the touchdown. The kick failed.

As the clock ran out Romie Artigues threw a 30-yard pass to Fred Bourgeois, who scored.

Rev. Keith Tonkel To Preach Sunday

The Rev. Keith Tonkel of Clermont, Fla., former Bay St. Louis resident, will preach at the Main St. Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Pastor of the church, the Rev. A. M. Ellison Jr., will be assisted during Holy Communion service, at 11 a.m., by the Rev. Mr. Tonkel.

This is the Rev. Mr. Tonkel's first visit to Bay St. Louis since he underwent an operation recently. His sermon here will be followed by a preaching tour of several Mississippi churches.

Youth Center Board

Board of directors of Bay St. Louis Youth Center will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Church Gets New Assistant

The Rev. Kevin Reid of County Westmeath, Ireland, arrived Friday to serve as assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. He will replace the Rev. John P. Robinson who has been transferred to St. Mary's Catholic Church at Shelby to serve as administrator.

Father Reid was ordained this summer at St. Patrick's College, Carlow, Ireland.

Before coming to Bay St. Louis six years ago Father Robinson served at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Hattiesburg, and St. Michael's Catholic Church, Biloxi. He came to the United States in 1949 from Ireland and was educated at St. Patrick's College.

A farewell reception for Father Robinson was Sunday night at the church. Father Reid and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin Moloney were honored at a reception Tuesday night. Msgr. Moloney arrived at Bay St. Louis this summer.

Lumberton Beats Bay High, 33-6

Lumberton's Panthers defeated Bay High's Tigers, 33-6, Friday night on Lumberton's field. The Panthers have won two games out of four while the Tigers have lost their first three games.

Lumberton scored a touchdown in the first, second and third quarters and added extra points after each score. In the fourth quarter, Lumberton made two touchdowns, but only managed to score the added-point after the first TD.

Bay High's Barry Stevens, quarterback, threw a pass to Billy Mont, end, who carried the ball to the 40-yard line. An end run by Joseph Morreale, halfback, put it on the 26-yard line. A drive through Lumberton's center by Bill Wams, fullback, brought it up to the 16-yard line. Stevens made a jump pass to Mont who raced in for the touchdown.

Let's Buy at Home

Many Bay St. Louis merchants, in cooperation with the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, are joining during October in the promotion of a buy-at-home campaign.

The benefits of such a cooperative effort are obvious. Primarily, it keeps a good share of the money earned in wages and salaries by Bay St. Louis residents circulating within their home community, to be spent again and again by benefiting store owners and individuals.

Buying at home also is certain to effect savings for consumers when they consider the expenditure of time and transportation costs necessary to go shopping in distant or nearby cities.

It also permits local merchants to offer a better selection of merchandise through quicker turnover of their stocks of goods.

And it helps finance the services the city provides for its residents through return of a portion of the sales tax to the city. This also provides a measure of tax reduction to the average citizen in that the more the city obtains through the sales levy the less it is required to collect in direct property taxes.

Many participating merchants are offering special values during the month. This should be added incentive to prospective purchasers to buy now, to express confidence thereby in the economic stability of this area.

In short, it's just good business to buy at home. It is a stimulus to the spirit of cooperation between merchants and consumers that is essential to the economic development of any community.

Welcome, Miss America

Bay St. Louis and Waveland join our sister municipalities on the Gulf Coast Tuesday in welcoming Miss America.

It is officially Miss America Day for Bay St. Louis, proclaimed by Mayor John A. Scaffide, in tribute to Miss Mary Ann Mobley who has brought honor, prestige and worldwide recognition to Mississippi through her selection as Miss America for 1959.

A massive turnout of citizens would be the most appropriate salute that the community could give to the beautiful University of Mississippi coed who has brought fame to the state and all its residents.

Overcrowding of Schools

It is gratifying that school officials and city officials are moving straight ahead in efforts to solve the problem of overcrowding of existing school facilities.

The largest enrollment in the history of Bay St. Louis schools has made an expansion program necessary. This year there are 11 per cent more white students and 9 per cent more colored students enrolled than last year.

The plan for additional buildings adopted tentatively by school and city officials is designed to meet the classroom needs of the area for the next 10 years. Selection of an architect, probably to be accomplished tonight, will be the first major step in launching the program.

Full support of this program planned to meet the expanding educational needs of a growing community is warranted.

Youth Center Plans Winter Activities

Mrs. L. Cyrell Glover, director of the Bay St. Louis Youth Center, said that she is planning a number of winter activities which will begin with a dance in about a week.

The center is operating new on winter schedule and is open Friday and Saturday nights with the exception of Friday when local basketball games are scheduled.

Hours of operation are from 7 to 10 p.m. each night. Recreational facilities, a large number of the latest records, television and radio sets are available for use.

Auxiliary To Meet

Hancock County Hospital Auxiliary will have a meeting and social hour at 8 p.m. Monday in the conference room. All members of the hospital board, the hospital staff and the county board of supervisors and friends are invited.

Junior Fire Marshal Plan To Start in City Next Week

National Fire Prevention Week Oct. 5-11 will mark the start of a year-long program of local Junior Fire Marshal activities in Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Margaret H. Shadlin of the Hancock Insurance Agency said today.

Theme of the 1958 fall campaign for elementary grade school children is "Fire Safety Education Will Be 'Fire Prevention Around the World'." Mrs. Shadlin said, this agency sponsors the Junior Fire Marshal program here in cooperation with elementary schools and the Fire Department under Chief Frank Quindt.

"The Junior Fire Marshal program is of particular significance this year," Mrs. Shadlin said. "Last year, five houses in the United States passed the $1-million mark for the first time in our nation's history. For the first six months of 1958, property loss from fire is running about 6 per cent above that for similar period last year."

Sponsored nationally for the last 15 years by the Hartford Fire Insurance Co. as a public service, the Junior Fire Marshal program this year will enroll more than four million children in the 49 states (including Alaska), Canada, Hawaii and the Philippines. To date some 24 million youngsters have qualified as Junior Fire Marshals.

"While special emphasis will be given during the coming year to a study of fire problems of other nations," Mrs. Shadlin said, "the fundamentals of fire safety in the home will continue to be the basic part of our program."

"In addition, this fall for the first time our educational material will stress the fire dangers in homemade crackers, fudge and girls will be trained to discourage reckless construction not only as potential fire hazards but also because of their threat to life and property," Mrs. Shadlin said.

Traditionally, the Junior Fire Marshal Fire Prevention Week campaign centers around a home inspection report. The report will be distributed by the Hancock Insurance Agency Oct. 6, to school children here.

To qualify as Junior Fire Marshals, pupils must complete a fire hazard check of their own homes, fill in the home report, have it signed by a parent, and turn it in to their schoolteacher.

July Business Much Better In Bay St. Louis, Survey Shows

General business activity in the Bay St. Louis area during July stood at 216 per cent of the 1947-1949 average, a table published in the September issue of the Mississippi Business Review shows.

This represents a raise over both the June percentage figure of 191 and the July, 1957, figure of 192.

A breakdown of percentage rises between June and July shows gains of bank deposits, 31 per cent; money orders issued, 19 per cent; postal receipts, 74 per cent; telephones in service, 6.1 per cent, and city sales tax collections, 2 per cent. This amounts to a 23 per cent general increase.

The changes from July, 1957, to July, 1958, are bank deposits, up 12 per cent; money orders issued, down 2 per cent; postal receipts, up 25 per cent; telephones in service, up 5 per cent, and city sales tax collections, up 7 per cent. This amounts to a 10 per cent general increase.

The weighted district average for the Biloxi-Gulfport area, which includes Biloxi, Gulfport, Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian and Piquette, shows a rise of 10 per cent from June to July and a rise of 6 per cent from July, 1957, to July, 1958.

The total area general business activity in July was 233 per cent of the 1947-1949 average, compared with 220 per cent in July, 1957, and 224 per cent in June.

District indicators for the period June to July show rises in bank deposits, 3 per cent; money orders issued, 18 per cent; postal receipts, 15 per cent, and telephones in service, 4 per cent.

District Governor Speaks to Rotary

Guest speaker at the Sept. 24 meeting of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club was Ben M. Stevens of Richton, governor of District 684, which covers southeastern Louisiana, including New Orleans, and southern Mississippi as far north as Hattiesburg.

Topic of Mr. Stevens' talk was "Rotarians Shaping the Future." Emphasizing that qualities of a Christian citizen, he named some of the ways in which a Rotarian can help to shape the future of his community.

The Rev. Charles R. Johnson, president of the Bay St. Louis club, presided at a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Sept. 23 and at the meeting Sept. 24.

Dr. Guigley Is Named Hospital Staff Chief

Dr. T. A. Guigley Jr. was named chief of staff at the September meeting of Hancock County Hospital medical staff. Other officers chosen are Dr. Wesley McFarland, vice chief, and Dr. A. K. Martinovich Jr., secretary. Dr. A. P. Smith was outgoing chief of staff.

Daughter Honored On 16th Birthday

Miss Betty Bowman of Waveland was honored at a party on her 16th birthday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bowman, in the Baptist Church at Waveland Sunday.

A green and white color scheme was used in decorations and refreshments. The long refreshment table was covered with a white imported linen cloth and centered with a large square, white and green birthday cake topped with green candles and was flanked on either side by a crystal punch bowl of lime punch and crystal tray of finger sandwiches. At different intervals were crystal compotes of white and green mints and nuts.

Among those attending were Patricia Villere, Geraldine Bourgeois, Kathleen Herlin, Lynne Hall, J. D. Bourgeois, Patrick Bourgeois, David Garcia, Hamilton Guenard and Terrell Bourgeois.

Harvest Ball To Be Oct. 18

Annual Harvest Ball sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. the night of Oct. 18 in the Legion Home.

A most pleasant service extended to hospitalize veterans in the Gulfport, Biloxi and Jackson Veterans Administration hospitals is the privilege of Christmas shopping for their families at the expense of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The Bay St. Louis unit's quota is 414 gifts to be valued at $1 each. Proceeds of the Harvest Ball will go toward purchase of these gifts.

Mrs. Henry Prevou, Auxiliary president, has urged all Legion and Auxiliary members and guests to join in the fun and at the same time contribute to this worthy project.

The band of Johnny Vance, well known in New Orleans and the surrounding areas, has been engaged for the ball.

Donation for the dance is $3 a couple.

Members of the Legion and the Auxiliary attending the dance will be eligible for the drawing which will determine the king and queen to reign over the ball.

All bids must be on a delivered and installed price, assembled, ready for use and all cartons, debris, etc., removed from the premises.

The Board reserves the right to alter the unit quantities more or less, not to exceed 20% of the quantity shown in the specifications.

Award may be made by group or individual items at the discretion of the owner.

An ample supply of sample furniture must accompany all bids.

A 5% bid bond must accompany all bids.

Specifications may be obtained from the office of County Supt. of Education upon request.

The Board reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

Done by the order of the Hancock County School Board this 22nd day of September, 1958.

SIGNED: E. E. Breland,
Secretary Hancock County School Board. 9/25-3t
